CARTE POSTALE

St. Nicholas's Cathedral and Black Gate. St. Nicholas's was one of the largest Parish Churches in England and was raised to its present dignity in 1882. It has a remarkable spire (195 ft.) of the 15th century, supported in the air by flying buttresses. In the vestry is an illuminated Bible (13th century) from Hexham Priory. The Black Gate dates from the same century and is the principal entrance to the Castle Precincts.
